

Bill of Rights Week Planned

Bill of Rights Week, commemorating the adoption of the first ten amendments of the Constitution of the United States, will be observed at El Camino College on December 9 and continue through December 14.

The program will be conducted with the theme, "Dynamics in Government—Assuming Our Individual Responsibilities in Order to Earn Our Individual Rights." A full agenda of events is scheduled for this commemorative week. Among the highlights of the week's activities will be a panel discussion on Thursday in El Camino's Campus Theater at 11 a.m. on the "Role of Women in Government."

Participating on the panel will be Lucile J. Boston, committee woman, Young Republican's National Committee; Trudy Owens, chairman, Woman's Division, California Democratic Council; Andre Silver and Gayle Floyd, students of El Camino College; and panel chairman, Altha Connor Wheatley, Inglewood attorney.

"Let Freedom Sing" will be the theme on Dec. 10, when Glenn Yarbrough, popular folk singer, will present a musical concert. Yarbrough will be presented a Bill of Rights parchment by El Camino officials.

Copies of the Bill of Rights will also be distributed at the South Bay Shopping Center the following day, December 11.

The theme for that day will be "Spreading the News." Cooperating with student government leaders will be the editorial staff of the campus newspaper, "Warhoop."

The edition for December 10 will be a commemorative issue on the Bill of Rights and will utilize color in its make-up.

On Monday, Dec. 13, government leaders will meet with college administrators and the Board of Trustees of El Camino College in a discussion and evaluation of government at the college level. They will conclude the day with a banquet for the Board and Student Council.

The most active day of the week will be December 14. Lt. Governor Glenn Anderson will be the principal speaker at an 11 a.m. convocation for college and civic leaders of the El Camino College district. Invitations have been extended to all mayor, city managers and councilmen within the college district.

BILL OF RIGHTS WEEK . . . The official proclamation for Bill of Rights Week to be observed from Dec. 9 through 15 is presented by Supervisor Warren M. Dorn (right) to Vierling Kersey, vice chairman of the Bill of Rights Commemoration Committee. The proclamation urges that all citizens of the area be asked to "cooperate with the Bill of Rights commemoration Committee in every way possible in its objective to awaken public interest in and appreciation of the Bill of Rights section of the Constitution of the United States." Chairman of the committee in Los Angeles County is Joe Crail.

Supervisors Proclaim Week for Observation of Bill of Rights

Bill of Rights Week was officially proclaimed by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors, for the week of Dec. 9 through 15, as Supervisor Warren M. Oorn presented the official proclamation to Dr. Vierling Kersey, vice chairman of the Bill of Rights Commemoration Committee.

The proclamation encouraged "all citizens of this area to be encouraged to cooperate with the Bill of Rights Commemoration Committee in every way possible in its objective to awaken public interest in, and appreciation of, the Bill of Rights section of the Constitution of the United States of America."

Joe Crail is chairman of the Bill of Rights Committee in Los Angeles County.

The Supervisors' proclamation also pointed out "the Bill of Rights Commemoration Committee was formed a quarter century ago and since that time has exerted every effort to bring to the youth of this country an awareness of the debt it owes to the founding fathers of our country, and a sense of appreciation for the liberties, opportunities, and challenges it enjoys."

The Supervisors also called attention to the sponsorship by the Bill of Rights Committee of its annual poster contest, public speaking and oratorical competition, and well as journalism and writing programs in schools throughout Southern California as "a means of developing good citizenship among the youth of our community."

Each year youth, civic, religious, business, and governmental groups participate in the observance of Bill of Rights Week.
